

Ida Lilly Tracy

Written by Oscar T. Tracy:

The sixth daughter, Ida Lilly, born 5 June 1900, schooled in Yost, Utah. My early recollection of her was quite a normal sister, taller than Evelyn and seemed to be mostly around the house. I'll never forget the one time she lost her temper, my brother, William (Bill) Charley, and I had been out in the hills getting firewood for the winter. We were hungry as boys get, Ida fixed us a lunch. Bill was teasing her as usual and she threw a table fork at him, he ducked and I got the fork in the scalp. Ida married 2 Oct 1922 William Hiram Rice of Almo, Idaho. Ida spent a quite lonely life for the first several years, as William worked herding sheep a great deal of the time. She lived at several locations in Yost, Utah. She lived in Almo Idaho for several years. Then they moved to Logan Utah, where they worked at the Desert Industries, upholstering furniture. Her last years were very painful as she had cancer of the bone and her back was in pain about all the time. She died the 4th of Aug 1963, at a rest home in Salt Lake City. They had the following children: Audry, Fern Letha, Cecil B, Opal Louise, Kerby Miles, June Elaine, Nelda, Wilma, Alice oleta, and Marva Rae.
